DETAILED ACTION

WITHDRAWN REJECTIONS

1. The 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph rejection of Claim 6, of record on page 2 of the previous Action, is withdrawn.

REPEATED REJECTIONS

2. The 35 U.S.C. 102(b) rejection of Claims 1 – 10 as being anticipated by Ryan et al (WO 98/21626), of record on page 2 of the previous Action, is withdrawn.

ANSWERS TO APPLICANT'S ARGUMENTS

3. Applicant's arguments regarding the Claims 1 – 10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Ryan et al (WO 98/21626), of record in the previous Action, have been carefully considered but have not been found to be persuasive for the reasons set forth below.

Applicant argues, on page 8 of the remarks dated March 5, 2007, that retention is the same as support, and is therefore not a property other than support.

However, Ryan et al state that retention is provided by the relief structure of the layer on which deposition takes place (page 18, lines 19 – 21); Ryan et al therefore state that without the relief features there would be no retention, although there would clearly be support because one layer would be positioned on top of another; Ryan et al therefore do not consider retention to be the same as support.

Applicant also argues, on page 9, that Ryan et al do not disclose a material configured to be deposited as layers.

However, because the deposition of the material in Ryan et al creates a thickness of material, having a defined width, as shown in Figure 1e, Ryan et al disclose a material configured to be deposited as layers.

4. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
